

This Week in Sunday School 10.4.21 -
Jesus Blesses Children/World Communion Sunday

Happy Sunday, Friends!

It can be really hard to be a kid. A lot of times you may hear that you're too young to do something or too young to understand something. Your parents drag you to places you don't want to go. In this story, the kids in this story were dragged to see Jesus with their parents, and the disciples were not happy to have them around. And then Jesus does something extraordinary...

Attached is a coloring page. Enjoy!

Today is a special day in our church and for churches around the globe. It's World Communion Sunday and we are going to learn all about it and have a special communion during the service today. So grab your family and whatever you have around for Communion. Juice and bread? Great. Goldfish crackers and water? All Good. Saltines and cider? Perfect. Let's join our local AND global brothers and sisters and celebrate the Lord's Supper together.

Finally Friends, I hope you understand how important and valuable you are, ESPECIALLY because you are kids. And you belong to the Kingdom of God. You are a very important part of our church community. Please keep listening, questioning, participating and learning. We are so lucky and grateful for YOU.

Finally Finally Friends, I can finally say that WE ARE GOING TO BE TOGETHER AGAIN. In person Sunday School is starting next Sunday, 10.10.21 and we are kicking it off with our Bible Sunday. I really hope to see you there.

I hope all of you know how much you are loved and missed! I will see you next Sunday!

Jesus Blesses Children

"Let the children come to me," Jesus said. "Do not stop them." What would you do if Jesus said this to you?
