

This Week in Sunday School 9.19.21 - Jesus Welcomes Children

Happy Sunday Friends!

After a long summer apart - we are back together! Virtually for a few weeks but in person soon and I could not be more excited!

Our first Sunday School lesson will teach us the concept of "Last will be First". But what exactly does this mean? In Mark's gospel, Jesus has some really interesting things to say about what it means to be great. What Jesus said surprised his disciples, who thought THEY were pretty great! Jesus said that to be great, you have to think first about what others need and help them. To be great, you have to be happy to come in last.

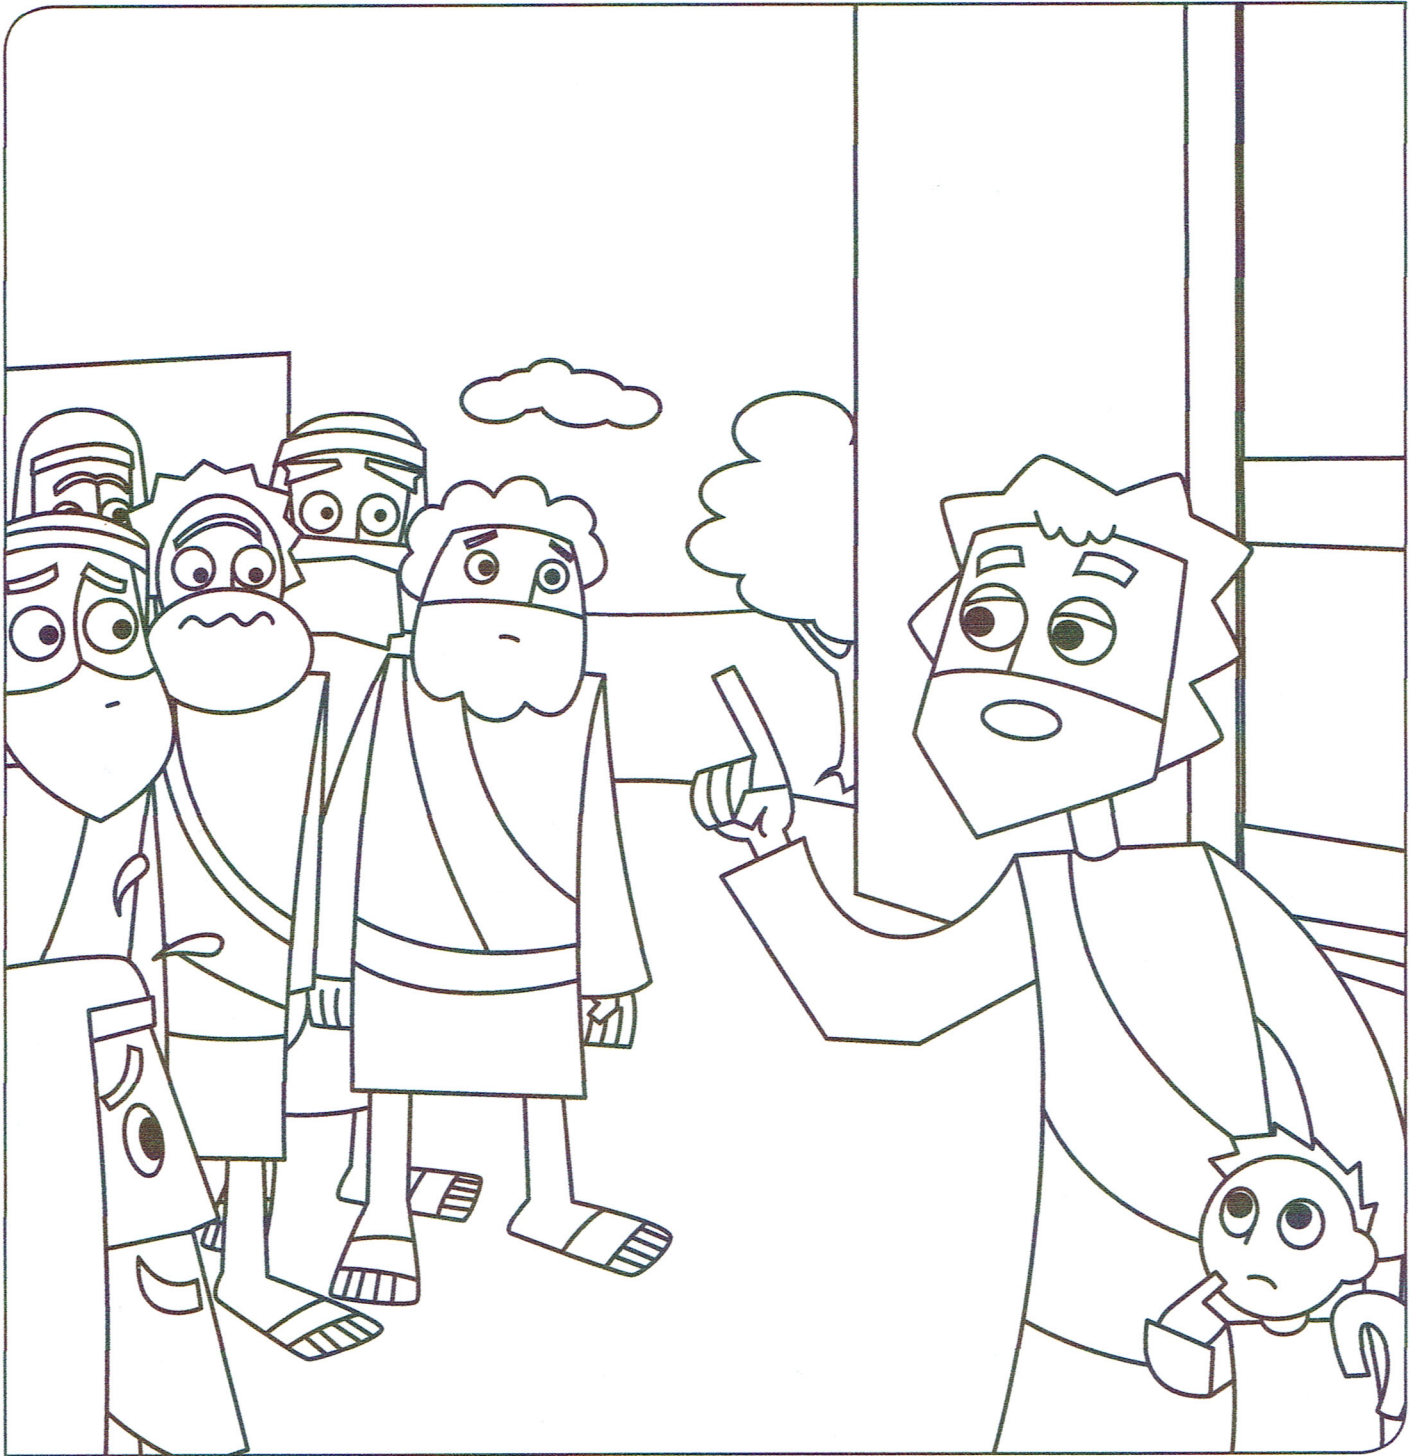

Attached is a coloring page. And this week I'm also going to give you something to think about and maybe even act on. Think about school and how do teachers serve you? Think of ways you can help your teacher, other kids in your class, and maybe other people that work at school like the custodians, food service workers, and others.

Finally Friends, Jesus loves kids. Jesus reminded his disciples that kids are important. So important that they show others how to love God. Please know that your church community knows you are important too, just like Jesus.

I hope all of you know how much you are loved and missed! We can't wait to be all together at church again soon.

Take Care,

Jesus Welcomes Children

"In God's eyes, a child is the MOST important. When you welcome a child, you welcome ME and GOD," Jesus said to the disciples. Why do you think kids are the most important?
