

Happy Sunday, Friends,

It's the Third Sunday of Advent and we're feeling JOYFUL and PINK! Let's light that pink advent candle! Fun fact, the 3rd Sunday of Advent is also called GAUDETE SUNDAY.

Today we are going to learn about the Prophet Isaiah. Isaiah was a prophet and told people many messages from God. Some messages were about God's judgement about people's bad behavior, but other messages were more hopeful. Today's passage is a hopeful message. Isaiah told people about God's house. God's house is bigger than the tallest mountain. Isaiah tells about how people who would live in God's house would use their weapons for farming tools and not fighting. Also all people are welcome! The people clapped and danced with joy when they heard about God's house. Isaiah invited God's people to walk in the light of the Lord to follow the path to God's house.

Attached are some activities and a coloring page. Enjoy!

Finally Friends, please remember that God always delivers messages of hope. And that we are ALL welcome at God's house.

I hope all of you know how much you are loved and missed! We can't wait to be all together at church again soon.

Take Care,
Gabrielle Heimerling

Isaiah's Words

In God's house, everyone will be happy. Swords will be used as garden rakes. Spears will become weeding tools. No fighting will be allowed. Why do you think fighting is not allowed in God's house?

Let's go to the Lord's house together!

Trace the path these friends take. Who brought you to church today?

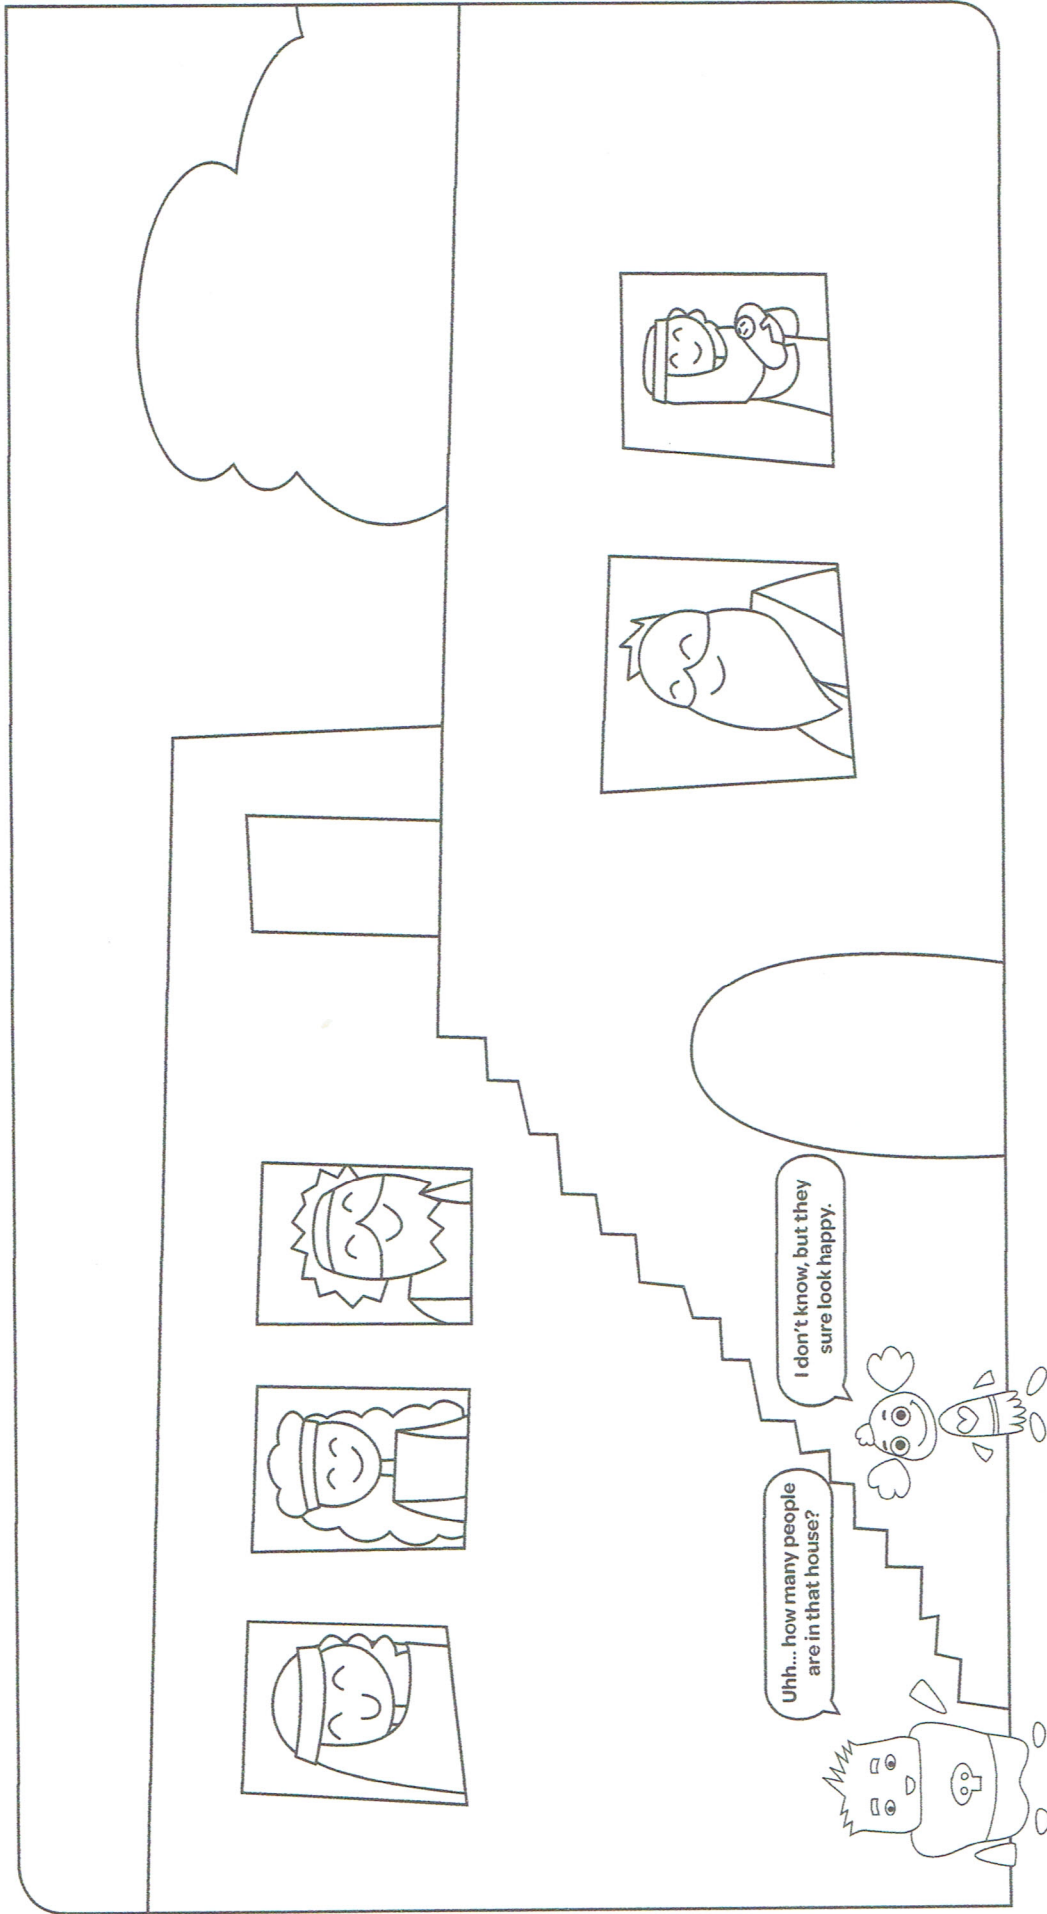

Our parents take us to worship.

Isaiah says there will be a big welcoming house!

Color the people in this house.

Uhh... how many people are in that house?

I don't know, but they sure look happy.

Today our church family prays for...
