

This week's news...

June 9, 2022

Dear Friend,

Tying Up Loose Ends!

As soon as June 1 rolled around, things started getting a little hectic!

On the church side of the ledger I've been wrapping up lingering projects, handing off others, giving up on a few, and saying many preliminary goodbyes! Members have been asking for meetings and get-togethers (which I love!) and yes, a few of you are counting down the days until I'm finally out of the church.

By now you're all aware of my early morning treks through Haddonfield. I make a 5-mile loop that takes me up to Tavistock and then back down meandering through neighborhoods until I'm back to the Wezner Mansion. Since I'm a creature of habit (yes — OCD!) I follow the exact same path every day. (Well, truth be told, there are those rare occasions when I'm feeling daring and I run the same route — but in the opposite direction!). Consequently, I run by my "regulars" and we have a waving/nodding/smiling acquaintance — meaning — I've never had a conversation with them. As a result, I've created their life-stories in my imagination: where they live, what they do, if they're married, have kids, retired, etc.

One couple, in particular, garners a lot of my creativity. They are maybe 40, he's tall, she's short, both are athletic and fit, and are out walking their Dobermann — which is a regal, well-manner, and very serious looking dog (like a good German!). We often cross paths on Lane of Acres and so this week, I stopped and introduced myself.

I told them how much I enjoyed seeing them in the morning, that I looked forward to our waves and "good mornings" and that the added a sense of consistency and "home" to my stay in Haddonfield. I also confessed that I had created a really lovely back-story for them. They asked why I was leaving and told them about retiring from the ministry and that I was serving First Presbyterian on Kings Highway! Oh! They knew it well! Both of their kids (the eldest now 12) attended our preschool for years and years and loved it!

I'll miss seeing the two of them and their dog, Roxy, on their morning walks — but glad I had a chance to say goodbye! Strange, isn't it, that people become valued parts of our lives but have no idea that happened? I'll say more about the importance that this congregation has taken on in my life a little later in June.

Last observation for this week:

Last Saturday, given that the town was going to be extra busy, the Communications Committee made plans to open the Sanctuary to visitors. A “new and improved” brochure about the Tiffany windows was printed, bottled water purchased for a giveaway, lots of Ukraine signs were on display for sale, and a couple of stalwart volunteers greeted folks and kept an unobtrusive but watchful eye on the place.

A lot of people visited and it provided excellent community outreach and connections. It was a really good, and fairly simple, event to host. The only thing missing? You!

We had all of 2 volunteers the entire time. There wasn’t a need for scores of people — but 6 to 8 would have made a huge difference.

All of this to say that plans are underway to do the same thing next month during the craft show on July 9 and 10. You’ll be seeing announcements and requests for volunteers in the bulletin and the weekly email — please consider giving up a couple of hours to show off your gorgeous and inviting church!

OK — last item — a picture this week of grandchildren, Harv and Eleanor. Today is their parents’ 4th anniversary — it’s been a busy time!

Be well and God bless,

OPENING THE SANCTUARY TO THE PUBLIC IN JULY

As Doug noted, we had a good response from visitors to our Sanctuary last weekend. Again on July 9 and 10, during the Haddonfield Arts and Crafts Show, we would like to invite the public into the building. Please sign up to be a greeter for an hour on one of those days. All that’s required is your welcoming presence.

ST. WILFRID'S OPEN DOOR CLINIC

Thirty Four Fans.

Thirty Four Fans were distributed Saturday. Our patrons live in housing where there is often air conditioning that doesn't work, there are windows that do not open or close, or there no air conditioning. Eyes light up when they can get a fan, or baby wipes, or diapers, or women's hygiene products: faces light up: the unexpected gift and blessing. Each week is an opportunity to bless and be blessed.

The Open Door Clinic will NOT be open this Saturday, June 11.

Many of our volunteers have been tirelessly volunteering their time over the past two years and are fatigued. Time to take a week off!

Next Foodbank Pick-up is Fri. morning, June 17; Next Open Door Clinic will be Sat. June 18

If anyone is able to help with either or would like to know more or volunteer for either sometime this summer – please contact Paul Urian at umanpaul@me.com

Last week marked the 112th week that the Open Door Clinic at St Wilfrid's has distributed food during the pandemic; 126 bags again, 11,160 total through Saturday. Over 275,875 pounds of food and dry goods, distributed by the all-volunteer, everything donated, nobody gets paid, Open Door Clinic at St. Wilfrid's. In May, the Open Door Clinic touched the lives of 1,237 adults and 718 children with our food distribution. Thank you all for your generous collections and contributions.

Needs: We are still collecting fans, baby wipes, # 2 and # 5 diapers, bar soap, and deodorant. Fans may be dropped off at Corey Crumley's porch at 40 Warwick Road. Haddonfield. Other items may be dropped off weekdays on the steps in back of Grace Episcopal Church (Patco parking) or on Sundays at FPC on the table under the bulletin board in the basement outside Fellowship Hall or from 11-12 outside the office door.

Panera Bread: Rose Guthrie is the principal volunteer who collects Panera bread each Friday night from the Panera in Mount Laurel, off of 295 and Rt 38, between the Wegman's and Costco. We need back-up for her. The pick-up is usually just before 9:00 p.m. Fridays, and the bread needs to be at St Wilfrid's by 8:30 Saturday. If one can volunteer to assist or be a back-up, please email Rose: intrepidrose@hotmail.com.

And PB & J: Again, Wendy reports that from about June 30 to Labor Day, we need helpers to make peanut butter and jelly sandwiches: There is a REAL NEED! Please contact Wendy Coffman at wendy.coffman@gmail.com with any questions. Please pick a week to make PB & Js. It is a great opportunity to introduce grandchildren or children to giving and service.
